Incident Summary: On June 15, 2017, at approximately 12:13 p.m., Elias Lopez was using his cell phone while waiting at the bus stop located at Hudson Street and McGuffey Road. An unknown male suspect approached and attacked the victim unprovoked. The victim fell to the ground striking the back of his head on the concrete. The suspect immediately began to beat the victim about the face and head. Two unknown females stood by and watched the assault. The male suspect and both females fled the location in a white or cream colored four door sedan with a sunroof. The victim's wallet was taken during the incident. The victim was transported to OSU hospital for multiple facial and mouth injuries.

The male suspect was described as: male, black, 25-30 years old, wearing a grey T-shirt, blue jeans with plaid boxers underneath, and dark boots.

The female suspects were described as: #1) female, white, multicolored tank top, black shorts, and sandals. #2) female, black, blue shirt, plaid shorts and was the driver of the vehicle.

Video surveillance and still images available at the Information Desk in Columbus Police Headquarters.
